

These materials were uploaded to multiple websites, typically to advertise musical performances. Since these musical performances are taking place in multiple cities as part of a tour, the materials were tailored for each location's performance and corresponding websites. A copy of each version of the materials is included here.

Gülsin Onay in Concert at Roosevelt University

Date: Sunday, May 19, 2019

Time: 2:00pm

Location: Ganz Hall at Roosevelt University, 430 S Michigan Ave, Chicago, IL 60605

(312) 341-3500

Price: Free

Website: <https://www.fineartsmusic-performanceandscholarship.org/>

May 19th marks the 100th anniversary of an important event in the history of the Turkish Republic - Commemoration of Atatürk – which was the beginning of Turkey's Independence movement. To celebrate this anniversary, Gülsin Onay will be performing for free in several U.S. cities. Gülsin Onay – one of Turkey's most prolific pianists – graduated from the Paris Conservatory at the age of 16, winning the prestigious "Premier Prix du Piano." Today, her international career has spanned 72 countries across all continents, from Venezuela to Japan, with performances at leading musical centers of the world. Gülsin Onay holds the titles of State Artist in her native Turkey, and holds an honorary doctorate degrees from Bosphorus University in Istanbul, and from Hacettepe University in Ankara. She was named "Pianist of the Year" in the 2011 Donizetti Classical Music Awards.

Tickets are free with support from the Turkish Consulate General in Chicago.

Disseminated by Mercury Public Affairs, a registered foreign agent, on behalf of the Embassy of Turkey. More information is on file with the Dept. of Justice, Washington, DC.

Gülsin Onay in Concert at MacPhail

Date: Sunday, May 12, 2019

Time: 2:00pm

Location: MacPhail Center for Music, Antonello Hall, 501 S 2nd Street, Minneapolis, MN 55401

Price: Free

Website: <https://www.macphail.org/events/gulsin-onay-in-concert/>

May 19th marks the 100th anniversary of an important event in the history of the Turkish Republic - Commemoration of Atatürk – which was the beginning of Turkey's Independence movement. To celebrate this anniversary, Gülsin Onay will be performing for free in several U.S. cities. Gülsin Onay – one of Turkey's most prolific pianists – graduated from the Paris Conservatory at the age of 16, winning the prestigious "Premier Prix du Piano." Today, her international career has spanned 72 countries across all continents, from Venezuela to Japan, with performances at leading musical centers of the world. Gülsin Onay holds the titles of State Artist in her native Turkey, and holds an honorary doctorate degrees from Bosphorus University in Istanbul, and from Hacettepe University in Ankara. She was named "Pianist of the Year" in the 2011 Donizetti Classical Music Awards.

Tickets are free with support from the Turkish American Association of Minnesota.

Disseminated by Mercury Public Affairs, a registered foreign agent, on behalf of the Embassy of Turkey. More information is on file with the Dept. of Justice, Washington, DC.

These materials were uploaded to multiple websites, typically to advertise musical performances. Since these musical performances are taking place in multiple cities as part of a tour, the materials were tailored for each location's performance and corresponding websites. A copy of each version of the materials is included here.

Who: Renowned Turkish pianist Fazil Say

Where: Royce Hall – UCLA
10745 Dickson Ct
Los Angeles, CA 90095
(310) 794-4041

When: Friday, April 12th, 2019 at 8:30pm

What: Fazil Say is a Turkish piano virtuoso who began as a child prodigy and has since played around the world, having been honored by leading classical and contemporary music awards internationally. The performance will feature his Troy Sonata in the first act, after which vocalist Serenad Bagcan will join him to present extraordinary examples from Turkish classical and literature fusion songs from the İlk Sarkilar album. "He is not merely a pianist of genius; he will undoubtedly be one of the great artists of the twenty-first century." (Le Figaro, Paris). Tickets are $40.

URL: Information at UCLA's Royce Hall Events Calendar and Ticketmaster

Disseminated by Mercury Public Affairs, a registered foreign agent, on behalf of the Embassy of Turkey. More information is on file with the Dept. of Justice, Washington, DC.

Who: Renowned Turkish pianist Fazil Say

Where: Chicago Cultural Center's Preston Bradley Hall
78 E Washington Street
Chicago, IL 60602
(202) 261-4000

When: Monday, April 15th, 2019 at 7:30pm

What: Fazil Say is a Turkish piano virtuoso who began as a child prodigy and has since played around the world, having been honored by leading classical and contemporary music awards internationally. The performance will feature his Troy Sonata in the first act, after which vocalist Serenad Bagcan will join him to present extraordinary examples from Turkish classical and literature fusion songs from the İlk Sarkilar album. "He is not merely a pianist of genius; he will undoubtedly be one of the great artists of the twenty-first century." (Le Figaro, Paris). Tickets are $50-100.

URL: Information at Eventbrite

Disseminated by Mercury Public Affairs, a registered foreign agent, on behalf of the Embassy of Turkey. More information is on file with the Dept. of Justice, Washington, DC.

Who: Renowned Turkish pianist Fazil Say

Where: Lisner Auditorium and George Washington University
730 21st St NW
Washington, DC 20052
202-994-6800

When: Tuesday, April 16th, 2019 at 7:30pm

What: Fazil Say is a Turkish piano virtuoso who began as a child prodigy and has since played around the world, having been honored by leading classical and contemporary music awards internationally. The performance will feature his Troy Sonata in the first act, after which vocalist Serenad Bagcan will join him to present extraordinary examples from Turkish classical and literature fusion songs from the İlk Sarkilar album. "He is not merely a pianist of genius; he will undoubtedly be one of the great artists of the twenty-first century." (Le Figaro, Paris). Tickets are $50-100.

URL: Information at GWU

Disseminated by Mercury Public Affairs, a registered foreign agent, on behalf of the Embassy of Turkey. More information is on file with the Dept. of Justice, Washington, DC.

Who: Renowned Turkish pianist Fazil Say

Where: Town Hall

123 W 43rd St
New York, NY 10036
202-261-4000

When: Thursday, April 18th, 2019 at 8:00pm

What: Fazil Say is a Turkish piano virtuoso who began as a child prodigy and has since played around the world, having been honored by leading classical and contemporary music awards internationally. The performance will feature his Troy Sonata in the first act, after which vocalist Serenad Bagcan will join him to present extraordinary examples from Turkish classical and literature fusion songs from the İlk Sarkilar album. "He is not merely a pianist of genius; he will undoubtedly be one of the great artists of the twenty-first century." (Le Figaro, Paris).

URL: Information at Town Hall

Disseminated by Mercury Public Affairs, a registered foreign agent, on behalf of the Embassy of Turkey. More information is on file with the Dept. of Justice, Washington, DC.